

“Here Ye Here Ye, The 5 Here’s to an Impromptu Speech”

Michael Allawos, Principal Consultant

Most of us have been there once or twice in our lives where we would have to say something in front of a large crowd or even just a few people and then you freak out. Not to worry you got this by follow the simple steps outlined below and a cute way that the steps were incorporated into an impromptu speech.

An Impromptu speech sample:
Topic: Ribbon cutting ceremony to a
“Puppy Love Bathhouse”

- (1) We are here today to celebrate an event that started out as just an idea that has blossomed into a reality.
- (2) Susie Love and Tommy Timely are our hosts today and we are joined by Senator Dorothy Fence-Sitter, and Mayor Clueless Ivan.
- (3) This beautiful building in Fur Town USA is right in the heart of our downtown square and is the perfect location for this new venture.
- (4) This is such a novel concept of having a Puppy Love Bathhouse it’s a wonder that no one else has ever thought of such an idea. Just think of the convenience to be able to drop off Pugsy Wugsy for a quick dunk and fluff while grabbing that double shot of espresso to start your day off.
- (5) In closing I would like to thank Susie Love and Tommy Timely for choosing our fair City to locate their Puppy Love Bathhouse bringing joy and happiness to not only our four-legged friends but also to their two-legged human companions.

The visual graph at the beginning is to help in remembering the 5 steps to put together an impromptu speech. Why, Who Where, Important, and Thank you.

Creativity follow through and follow-up is the key to success!
